

ESUCC PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

COPYRIGHT CLARITY

Renee Hobbs

Professor Hobbs is an internationally-recognized authority on digital and media literacy education. She will provide the training on copyright and fair use, connecting the concepts to media literacy, digital literacy, and learning.

November 16 & 17

8:30 AM - 3:30 PM (CT)

ESU 3, LaVista & Zoom

Open to all ESU staff, NDE staff and district librarians

Districts - Contact your ESU for more details on cost and registration

Register at: ESUPDO site

- Learn what you CAN do with copyrighted material like print, images, videos, and music for teaching and learning and when it is legal to use copyrighted materials
- Discover the importance of eliminating copyright confusion and replacing it with copyright clarity to support digital learning
- On day 2, dive deeper into the concepts of copyright and fair use
- Practice scenarios and explore the impact of copyright and fair use on digital instruction and learning